1. Lief & leed / Joys & sorrow

Welkom terug aan al ons leerders en ouers, na 'n lekker lang vakansie. Kan julle glo... nog net 5 maande voor die einde van die skooljaar! Ons gaan weer lekker, speel-speel, leer.

- Welcome back to all our learners and parents, after a long, pleasant holiday. Can you believe it... only 5 months to go before the end of the school year! We are again going to enjoy learning, play-play.

SO KAN JY WOEDEBUIE EN SKAAM GESIGTE VERMY

Wanneer jy nie behoorlike reëls en grense het nie, sal nie jý of jou kinders gelukkig wees nie. Ons, as ouers, verwaarloos hierdie aspek van gesag wanneer ons net heeldyd reageer op ons kinders se stoutigheid en ongehoorsaamheid. Hulle weet nie vooraf waar die grense is nie en as hulle dit in ons oë oorsteek, straf ons hulle. Dit is nogal onregverdig.

Ons weet tog die meeste kinders word nie met 'n goed-ontwikkelde aanvoeling vir grense gebore nie! Hulle moet dit aanleer en ons is die verantwoordelike grensregters. Toe my seuntjie die eerste keer by 'n konsert was waar sy pa nie opgetree het nie, het hy nogtans ná die vertoning, op die verhoog geklouter. Hy was mos gewoon daaraan dat hy na die tyd op die dromme mag gaan trommel. Niemand het vir hom verduidelik die verhoog is buite perke nie – hy speel dan weekliks op die verhoë!

Ons verleentheid was groot, maar niemand kon hom blameer nie. Dit is presies wat gebeur wanneer ons nie grense stel nie. Die resultaat is skande vir jou en jou kinders. Jy mag nie hierdie plig, en reg, verwaarloos nie. Talle tieners kla nie oor hoe outyds of streng hulle ouers is nie, maar eerder oor hoe min hulle omgee. Wanneer hulle gevra word waarom hulle so oor hulle ouers voel, kom die antwoord dikwels: "Hulle gee nie om waar ek is, wanneer en of ek huis toe kom nie. Ek dink nie hulle gee enigsins om waarmee ek my besig hou nie".

Stel grense wat nie onredelik is nie en maak seker dit word ook nie verander of geïgnoreer nie. As dit die geval is, word daardie deel van jou gesag belaglik.

Voelgoed.co.za - Februarie 2015

Neither you, nor your children, will be happy if you do not have proper rules and boundaries in place. We, as parents, often neglect this aspect of authority, when we only react to our children's mischief and disobedience. They do not know beforehand where the boundaries are, but if they cross them, then we punish our children. That is rather unfair.

We are fully aware that most children are not born with a natural perception of boundaries! This is a learnt behaviour and we are the responsible referees. The first time my little boy attended a play, where his dad was not part of the play, he nevertheless climbed onto the stage after the show. It was common practice for him to play with the drums on stage after shows, and no one explained to him that the stage was off-limits.

Our embarrassment was huge, but no one could blame him. This is typically what happens when you do not set boundaries. The result is shame to you and your children. You should not neglect this duty and right. Most teenagers do not complain about how old-fashioned or strict their parents are, but rather about how little they care. When asked why they feel this way about their parents, the answer is often: "They don't care where I am, when and if I am coming home. I don't think they care, at all, what I am keeping myself busy with."

Set boundaries that are not unreasonable, and make sure that it is not compromised or ignored. If that happens, then this aspect of your authority becomes ludicrous.
